1st Annual Easton Civic Day – April 9, 2016

EASTON, CT (April 1, 2016) – Plans for the 1st Annual Easton Civic Day are well underway. The organizing committee, composed of Easton residents has been reaching out to numbers of civic groups, the local town government and charitable organizations in town and from the greater Bridgeport Region. The event takes place on Saturday, April 9th at the Community Room at The Easton Public Library. A continental breakfast will be served throughout the duration of the event. Beginning at 10:00 AM and continuing 3 hours ending at 1:00 PM, residents, neighbors and friends can learn about new, exciting opportunities to get involved in the community.

According to Wiley Mullins, Committee Chairman, “Civic Day offers information on a variety of topics of interest to residents. Some of the many areas to be showcased include:

- Voter Registration
- The Easton Arts Council
- Easton Volunteer Services
- Notary Services available Free to Easton Residents
- Fishing Licensing Information for Aquarion Properties
- Easton Historical Society
- Registering Pets in Easton
- Easton Parks & Recreational Opportunities
- Agriculture & Farm Resources in Easton
- Recycling and Environmental Protection in Easton

Other groups like Habitat for Humanity and The Bridgeport Rescue Mission have also expressed strong interest in participating. It will be great time for seasoned residents as well as an opportunity for new residents to learn more about Easton and get involved in the town.
