The Easton Senior Center is trying its best to safeguard the maximum number of people from COVID. Cleaning and sanitization have never stopped but the State has changed the rules for mask wearing and social distancing. The Center will continue to require staff and volunteers to wear masks and leave the decision to those attending activities and classes to make their own decision to wear a mask or not. The list of volunteers serving the center is maintained at the desk. Different volunteers serve in the mornings and afternoons. No special training is needed and the duties are flexible. Any employee absent with COVID is required to take accumulated sick leave or if vacation time remains, they can utilize those days or as another option, take unpaid leave.
4. A committee has been planned to honor Anne Fiyalka for her many years of service to the center. Slavica Prevelige, Pat Camuto, and MaryAnn Freeman form the committee.
5. The March Tag sale is going great. It has raised $2895.50 till date. Railings and curb painting projects are still going on. Mulching the garden will be in June.
6. Wendy Bowditch moved to adjourn the meeting. Pat seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously and the meeting adjourned at 4:50 p.m.
