

BIRDS OF PREY AT THE EASTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Join the Friends of the Easton Public Library and the Connecticut Audubon Society for a birds of prey event open to the community. Encounter with one or more raptors on a bird handler's glove. You'll learn about the natural history of these magnificent birds, while discovering their unique physical and behavioral adaptations. We'll discuss different raptor species and their amazing behavioral and predatory adaptations, as well as their conservation status and critical role in the environment. There is no cost, but pre-registration is required, and space is limited.

Date: Saturday, May 6th, 2023

Time: 2:00pm – 3:00pm

Where: The Easton Public Library Community Room

Cost: This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Easton Public Library and is FREE. Pre-registration is required on the Easton Public Library's website and space is limited.
