

Author Talk/Book Signing

Monday, July 29 @ 7pm

Local author Deborah Levison will discuss her debut book, THE CRATE: A Story of War, a Murder, and Justice, a true crime story with echoes of the Holocaust, which has won seven literary awards to date. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing. Debbie is a daughter and granddaughter of Holocaust survivors, and her presentation recounts not only her family's poignant stories of survival, but also a grisly, present-day true crime that rocked their lives. Born and raised in Canada, Debbie attended the Royal Conservatory of Music and the University of Toronto before relocating to Connecticut.
