

A Loving Approach to Dementia Care From Task, To Activity, To Accomplishment! & Strategies For Managing Common Behavior Challenges

FREE FOR THE PUBLIC - EDUCATIONAL EVENT
FOR PROFESSIONALS, CAREGIVERS, FAMILY
MEMBERS, LOVED ONES

Location: EASTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

691 Morehouse Rd, Easton, CT 06612

Date: Wednesday, September 18, 2019

Time: 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

Every dementia care journey is unique...

This 1.5-hour workshop has been developed from real-life accounts from families and clients over the years.

Speaker Laura Wayman will provide resources on how to:

- Share fond memories
- Spend quality time
- Get past the struggle to stay connected, engaged, and active
- Know what to talk about
- Plan activities to do
- Utilize five care approach techniques that can empower you to make your situation more manageable
- Help manage four common behavioral challenges

Kindly RSVP to Lynn Zaffino or Front Desk

lzaffino@eastonlibrary.org
203.261.0134

Laura, author of "A Loving Approach to Dementia Care," has more than a decade of experience in and a strong dedication to quality aging. Since 2001, Ms. Wayman has presented trainings, workshops, master classes and seminars to over 500 audiences around the world. Laura is a professional Dementia care consultant, trainer, the CEO of The Dementia Whisperers and a speaker on Dementia and issues of aging.

Sponsored By:
Sheraton Caregivers
Therapeutic Home Care
Westport, CT 06880
203-221-0221
www.sheraton.care