

SENIOR NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2022
MUNICIPAL AGENT FOR THE AGING/ SOCIAL SERVICES DIRECTOR
EASTON SENIOR CENTER ALISON WITHERBEE 203-268-1137
awitherbee@eastonct.gov
HOURS Monday through Friday 8:30 to 3:30

Dear Friends,

I cannot believe we are in the countdown to all of the December holidays and the New Year is right around the corner! Read below for information on a very important presentation giving by the Easton Police Department on SCAMS! Also, Frank Pagliaro, local Easton historian and Greiser's staff member will be giving two talks in December, if you missed them over the summer you will want to come hear him talk about events in Easton.

Happy Holidays,

SCAMS & HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELVES

December 15th at 10 am at the ESC

Come hear Officer Lyman from the Easton Police Department discuss the scams out there and what you should know about how to not be a victim of one. Many seniors have been scammed recently and this talk will educate you on what you should know and how to protect yourselves. THIS IS IMPORTANT so please try and come learn how to defend yourselves from these scams!

Please RSVP to Alison at 203-268-1137

Coffee & Pastries will be served

HISTORY TALKS WITH FRANK AT GREISER'S (The Easton Meteorite)

December 13th 9:30 am to 11 or December 14th Time TBD

Frank Pagliaro is a 27-year Easton resident with a passion for history, a member of the Easton Cemetery Committee, a former board member of the Historical Society of Easton and co-author of the definitive study of the 1807 Weston Meteorite fall sites. The $12-per-event ticket price includes a light breakfast buffet of coffee, tea, and juice, plus fresh baked croissants and scones, donut muffins, and yogurt. Seating is limited. Advanced registration is required.

Call 203-220-9424 to reserve your spot.

ENERGY ASSISTANCE

Energy Assistance season is here and applications can still be done with me or you may contact Alliance for Community Empowerment www.alliance.com or call 203-366-8241 if you prefer. You are welcome to call me to see if you qualify, or have any questions. If you would like to come to my office and complete an application please call, or email me, to set up an appointment.

The Commission for the Aging will meet on Monday December 12th at 5pm at the ESC

