Thank you so much for your continued generous donations for all of our special projects. As a result of all the enthusiastic organization from Paul & Maryellen Diana, and the generous monetary donations of $2,000 from the Lions Club, the Allegion Engineers have put the finishing touches to automatic doors for both the women's and men's bathroom facilities, which has now been installed. These generous contributions donated by the following folks have allowed us to complete this special spring project, Edith Hersher, Ann and James Linley, LaRocca's Garage, David & Lee Sylvestro, Marie Inzucchi, and Casimir & Janina Dobkowski. Tidewater Electric will connect the electricity shortly.

Our next special effort, which is well on its way is to update our old computers so that seniors can take advantage of new and faster technology. We are really grateful to the following folks who are making it possible: Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Mocariski, R. Kenneth Connolly, The Wiesers and the Old Blue Bird Garage, Barbara Paolini, the Easton Garden Club, Margaret Karachuk, and Nancy Carabino.

Our most sensational venture is to seek a way to allow seniors to continue to participate in a healthy and inexpensive exercise program. So far help has come from Kathleen Poidomani (in loving memory of John Poidomani), the Easton Domino Ladies, Laurie Mellon, Richard & Rita Seclow, and Teresa Swanberry (in loving memory of her husband Robert)

The Easton Senior Center will be closed on Friday, April 7th.

OPEN ROUND TABLE with Attorney Christine Tenore regarding probate and estate administration, potential tax consequences and the importance of titling your assets. Held on Wednesday, April 19th at 9:30am. Please call to sign up for this very informative discussion. Bring your questions! Our next round table session will begin in the FALL.

How can you help the Easton Senior Center now that spring has arrived? We need brand new unworn clothes, unused or unwanted items, or gifts that you no longer need or want. (PLEASE NO USED CLOTHES DUE TO COVID). We are still accepting CLEAN quilts, blankets, knitted items, scarves, hats, etc. We are collecting jigsaw puzzles, yarn, brand new unused items, jewelry, like new pocketbooks, etc.

Do you have a service, talent or skill you would like to donate???

Our jewelry sale has come to an end and a new jewelry sale will start in September.

Pocketbooks will be discounted through April 10th.

NEW CLASS Scarf making for Mother's Day with Danielle Ramos. Look for more information.
