

SENIOR NEWSLETTER FEBRUARY 2023
MUNICIPAL AGENT FOR THE AGING/ SOCIAL SERVICES
ALISON WITHERBEE

203-268-1137 awitherbee@eastonct.gov

Hours: Monday through Friday 8:30 to 3:30

The weather has certainly been unpredictable so far this winter, and you know that February is when Punxsutawney Phil predicts the rest of the winter but as a reminder do not let your oil, or source of energy, get too low as to prevent an emergency call to your supplier. Energy applications are still being submitted so if you think you may qualify call and make an appointment to see me. Read below for a breakfast presentation on Valentine's Day!

Presentation on Advanced Directives
& The 5 Wishes

Tuesday, February 14th at 9 am

Have you thought about how you want to direct you end of life care?

Come learn from Jessica DiPietro, Nurse Practitioner and Easton Commission for the Aging member, about Advanced Directives and getting what you want for your end of life care. MOLST (Medical Orders Life Sustaining Treatment) forms will be provided as well as a Valentine's Day breakfast. Give your loved one's peace of mind!

Please call to sign up 203-268-1137

Please consider a donation to the Martha Carrie Schurman Fund which helps Easton seniors, whose needs cannot be met by other means, with financial assistance.

The Commission for the Aging will meet on February 6th at 5pm at the ESC
